Working Modalities

On Company

Choosing to work "On Company" involves deep integration within Skywealth. As an integral part of the team, you can pursue either as a salesperson or as someone who will build a commercial structure below, benefiting from ongoing training, structured support, and professional development opportunities offered internally. This modality is ideal for those who value growth within a collaborative and structured environment.

External Partner

Alternatively, opting to work as a "External Partner" means operating externally to Skywealth as an independent collaborator. While you maintain autonomy and flexibility in terms of location and schedule, you do not participate in the same way in the internal structures of the company or in the training and development programs designed for internal employees.

Salesperson

As a Consultant at Skywealth, you become an essential part of our team, engaging directly with clients to provide expert advice and tailored financial solutions. You benefit from comprehensive training programs and continuous professional development opportunities aimed at enhancing your skills and knowledge in the financial sector.

Builder

The role of Team Manager within our "On Company" structure is attainable after successfully managing 50 clients. This leadership position involves overseeing and guiding a group of Consultants, focusing on strategic planning, team development, and ensuring the successful execution of financial strategies tailored to our clients' needs.

Independent

As an Independent Salesperson, you maintain autonomy over your schedule and operations while leveraging Skywealth's resources and support. This role is suited for individuals who value entrepreneurial freedom and have established relationships within the financial services industry.

Sales Team

Entrepreneurs leading a sales team under Skywealth operate independently while building and managing their own commercial structure. This role allows for leadership and growth opportunities within a collaborative network, benefiting from Skywealth's expertise and market presence.

Revenue Examples

Environmental Impact

By helping 50 clients, you contribute to planting 50 trees. Each tree helps offset carbon emissions, creating a positive environmental impact. Planting these trees is equivalent to removing approximately 1,000 kg of CO₂ from the atmosphere annually, contributing to a greener and healthier planet.

Financial Potencial

As a Skywealth consultant, you earn an average of €40 per client each month. With 50 clients, this amounts to €2,000 per month, or €24,000 per year in API and membership fees. Your dedication and effort not only secure your financial stability but also create significant earning potential as you grow your client base. In addition to this steady monthly income, you'll have opportunities to earn bonuses and incentives based on performance and client retention. This consistent revenue stream ensures that you can plan your finances with confidence, knowing that your hard work directly translates into tangible financial rewards.

Freedom for the Clients

With 50 clients, each benefiting from an additional €250 monthly, you're empowering them to achieve greater financial freedom. This can mean an extra €3,000 per year for each client. Some may use this to pay off debt, invest in their future, or cover essential expenses, significantly improving their financial well-being and allowing them to achieve personal goals that were previously out of reach. This financial boost can help them save for a home, invest in education, or enjoy a better quality of life. By providing this support, you're making a lasting impact on their lives. Your role is crucial in guiding them towards financial stability and helping them realize their dreams.

Our Dev Tree for builders

Builder Revenue

Environmental Impact

By supporting 5 consultants who each manage 50 clients, you help plant 250 trees. Each tree offsets carbon emissions, creating a substantial environmental impact. Planting these trees is equivalent to removing approximately 5,000 kg of CO2 from the atmosphere annually, contributing significantly to a greener and healthier planet.

Financial Potencial

As a Skywealth Builder, you oversee 5 consultants, each managing their own client base. Each consultant earns €40 per client monthly, across 50 clients, totaling €10,000 monthly or €120,000 annually. Your 2.5% commission amounts to €3,000 per year. Your proactive leadership ensures their success, significantly enhancing your earnings potential. Furthermore, you earn bonuses based on team performance and retention. This steady revenue stream, bolstered by your leadership, secures financial stability and offers substantial growth opportunities, firmly affirming your pivotal role in their financial success and in advancing your prosperous financial future.

Freedom for the Clients

With 250 clients collectively benefiting from an additional €250 monthly through your team's efforts, you're amplifying financial empowerment on a large scale. Each client gains an extra €3,000 annually, enhancing their ability to manage debts, increase savings, or improve daily living. Such financial uplift can facilitate significant life changes like buying homes or funding education. Your leadership in providing this support not only transforms individual lives but also stabilizes their financial futures, reinforcing your essential role in their journey towards achieving their dreams.
